Happening Hangar Party to Help Homeless Children in Dallas

Auxiliary to raise money for homeless youth at their 15th Annual Cocktail Party

DALLAS, Texas – The Friends of Children at Interfaith Housing Coalition (Interfaith) will go “Flying Through the Eighties” at their 15th annual fundraiser on Friday, February 21st at the historic Frontiers of Flight Museum. The event will feature a festive cocktail buffet, live auction, and a concert by the popular 80’s band, The Spazmatics. Proceeds from the evening benefit Interfaith’s Hope & Horizons children and teens programming, which serve approximately 200 homeless children each year.

This year’s gala will recognize Suzy and Tom Rhodes and their family as Honorary Chairmen for their longtime commitment to the Friends of Children of Interfaith. The president of the Friends of Children at Interfaith Auxiliary is Nancy Bierman. Co-Chairs of “Flying through the Eighties” are Margaret Hunt, Anne Lindsey Hunt, Devin Rambie, Rebecca Rambie, Cathy Wills, Whitney Cotton, and Leigh Winans.

Thanks to the generosity of local businesses and the community, this event has raised over $2.1 million to date. Major underwriters and sponsors for the “Flying Through the Eighties” party include:

About Interfaith Housing Coalition

Interfaith Housing Coalition has been a leading resource for homeless families for nearly 30 years. Each year approximately 100 families—primarily single mothers with children—are provided transitional housing via 49 furnished and decorated apartments which the agency owns debt-free; extensive financial literacy training; job search assistance and career development; and nurturing after-school programs for children and teens. For more information, please visit www.ihcdallas.org.
