Interfaith Family Services Raises $122,500 at 17th Annual Golf Classic to Support Families in Crisis

Dallas, TX – September 16, 2023 – Interfaith Family Services proudly hosted its 17th Annual Golf Classic at The Clubs of Prestonwood on Monday, September 16. The event was a resounding success, raising an impressive $122,500 to support families facing crisis situations. This year's fundraising total exceeded previous efforts, directly contributing to breaking the cycle of poverty for those in need.

The tournament, which kicked off with a shotgun start at 10 a.m., was co-chaired by Ben Eakes and Brian Hegi. Participants included 125 players, 31 teams, and 23 generous sponsors.

Highlights of the day included remarks from Interfaith Family Services CEO, Kimberly Williams, and an inspiring speech from Shanese Harrison, a recent graduate who shared her personal journey of hope and resilience, emphasizing the critical support services provided by Interfaith.

Interfaith Family Services plays a vital role in the community, offering housing solutions for families, primarily single mothers, experiencing homelessness, as well as rent assistance to help others maintain their homes.

Event Highlights:

- ❑ Total Raised: $122,500 (including $7,000 contributed on the day of the event)
